- 1. Beginning on 15 April 1953, fortifications are to be built in the area of Kasperske Hory (N 50/Q 27), south of Susice (N 50/Q 28) in the Sumava area along the Czech-Bavarian border. The area between the villages of Hartmanice (N 50/Q 17), Kasperske Hory and Zdikov (N 50/Q 37) is to be completely evacuated of civilians. The fortified sector will be 25 km. in depth and will include the areas of Zlibek, Pohorsko (N 50/Q 27), Malec, Strasice (N 50/Q 38), Kojnice (sic) and Kladruby (N 50/Q 39).
- 2. The area to be evacuated will also be used as an assembly area for the 1st Mountain Division, which will be organized during 1953 from the various mountain formations which have been dispersed among other units. It will be supported by the 1st Mountain Artillery Regiment and the 1st Mine Detachment (sic).
- 3. The staff of the new division will be located at Kladruby. A regiment of border guards (PS) will be quartered at Kasperske Hory. The forward posts of border guards at Prasily, Modrava, Kvilda and Svinna Lada will be reinforced.
- 4. A strategic military road will be built between Svinna Lada and Cazov (sic), running to the Czech-Bavarian border opposite the village of Bischofsreuth. This road will connect Cazov with the road already in existence running to Lenora in one direction and to Horni Vltavice and Vimperk (N 50/Q 46) in the other. The new military district will be subordinate to the Ceske Budejovice headquarters.
